WHEN HE SAW THE CROWDS,
 HE HAD COMPASSION ON THEM,
 BECAUSE THEY WERE HARASSED
 AND HELPLESS, LIKE SHEEP
 WITHOUT A SHEPARD.
 THEN HE SAID TO HIS DISCIPLES,
 "THE HARVEST IS PLENTIFUL
 BUT THE WORKERS ARE FEW,
 ASK THE LORD OF THE HARVEST,
 THEREFORE, TO SEND OUT WORKERS
 INTO HIS HARVEST FIELD."
 MATTHEW 9:36-38

2012 HEARTLAND
LABORERS
CONFERENCE
 FEBRUARY 24-25, 2012
 LAWRENCE, KS

OUR SPEAKER

BEN NUGENT

Ben met Christ late in high school and met The Navigators his first day on campus at Illinois State University, where he graduated with a degree in History Education. He met his wife Melissa at a Navigator Summer Training Program, and they have been married for 13 years. Their son Sam is 4 ½ and their daughter Vivian is 2.

After college graduation, Ben and Melissa moved to Fort Collins, Colorado in 1999 to work with The Navigators there. They spent seven years at Colorado State before moving to Gainesville, Florida to reopen the Navigator work at the University of Florida in 2006.

Ben's passions include developing laborers for God's harvest, teaching the Word of God, Summer Training Programs, and discipling younger men to become leaders. When he is not on campus, he enjoys playing golf, wrestling with his kids, and eating anything that is "Chicago Style."

DETAILS

WHAT

When Jesus looks at the people around you, he sees people who desperately need someone to invest in their lives: sheep with no shepherd, a bountiful harvest. His heart cries out for laborers!

You are the answer to his prayer.

During this conference we will explore what it means to be the type of laborer Jesus cried out for.
